

Forum Guidelines

Welcome to the CORE_Forums. If you need help, contact the CORE webmasters at paulabren@cableone.net.

As a community forum, it's important to establish basic ground rules to ensure a positive experience for all. We want the forum to be appropriate, friendly, and informative.

Stay on Topic Please read the content of the posting carefully. If you have a comment or question on a new topic, please create a new posting.

Member Conduct The term "Netiquette" refers to Internet Etiquette—which should include respectful, courteous, and polite communications. Do not discuss other individuals or organizations in an abusive or negative way and do not engage in personal attacks or harassment. Typing in all capital letters may be misinterpreted as screaming or yelling. It's also much harder to read! If you see any offensive, abusive or otherwise inappropriate postings, please alert the Webmasters at paulabren@cableone.net.

Do not post Inappropriate Content. Inappropriate content includes any confidential or potentially embarrassing information about yourself or anyone else. Posting someone else's confidential information will result in the termination of your access to these services without notice.

Do not post spam, advertising, etc. It is not permissible to post content that constitutes advertising or promotion, junk mail, "spamming," chain letters, or any other form of unauthorized solicitation. Links that connect to commercial websites will not be considered unauthorized solicitations unless the link or the website content appears to be intended as a means of solicitation.

Do not post illegal or unauthorized materials By posting on this Forum, you agree that you will not upload, post, or otherwise transmit any content that is illegal or unauthorized. Examples of illegal or unauthorized uses include, but are not limited to: 1) submitting materials of any third party without such third party's prior written consent, 2) submitting materials that infringe, misappropriate or violate the intellectual property, publicity, privacy or other proprietary rights of any party, 3) transmitting any viruses, worms, defects, Trojan horses or other items of a destructive nature, 4) submitting materials that are unlawful or promote or encourage illegal activity, 5) purposely submitting false or misleading information. You agree to comply with all laws regarding online conduct and acceptable content.
